

Behavioral Based Interview Questions

Can you really answer these???

Potential employers aren't just looking at your GPA and work experience; they want to get to know you to see if you're the right fit for the position/company! Before your interview, make sure to prepare strong examples for the questions below to land that perfect job!

Note** There are no standard interview questions, so be prepared to answer anything!

- What has been one of your greatest challenges? How did you overcome that challenge?
- Describe a time when you anticipated potential problems. What preventative measures did you develop to avoid the issues?
- Describe a time when you had to make a difficult decision. What was the result?
- Describe a time when you had to motivate others. What did you do?
- Describe a time when you had many things to do. How did you prioritize your tasks?
- Tell me about a time when you had to use your presentation skills to influence someone's opinion. Were you successful?
- Describe a situation where you did not meet established deadlines. What caused the delay, and what were the consequences?
- Describe a situation where you interacted with people from different cultural, social, or economic backgrounds. Were you effective?
- Describe a time that you solved a problem in a unique or unusual way. What was the outcome? Were you satisfied with it?
- Describe the most difficult working relationship you've had. Why was it difficult, and what did you do to overcome your differences?
- Describe one of the most significant contributions you made as a member of a team. Did you reach your goals?

Remember: Practice makes perfect!
